dedication

We, the class of 1951, dedicate this Echoes to David Stevenson not for his efforts to educate nor his devotion to the interests of Lincoln College not for his guidance in work and in play nor his loyalty to the student body not for these nor any other impersonal traits so much as we thank him for his smile, his friendship and we thank him for knowledge.

BASKETBALL

Lincoln College's 1950-51 basketball team presented a perfect example of why college coaches turn grey. Coach John Ryman's boys posted an overall season's record of 8 wins and 8 losses, but Ryman had his hands full keeping track of the many squad member losses.

In spite of a great height disadvantage throughout the year, the Lynx presented a 5-3 conference record as well as a 7-3 record against junior college teams. Ryman's consolation for his grey hairs was the winning of the Richard K. Goodman traveling trophy and a second place standing in the Illinois-Missouri conference.

Jim Kongabel, Student Council President.

The Student Council has co-operated with the social committee and has brought to the students a great many memorable and enjoyable social events. The election of the student council is by no means a calm event around L.C. as many of us have witnessed. Everywhere one turns there are signs "Vote for ——."

President, Jim Kongabel; Vice President, Eddie BeVard; Secretary, Mary Jane Reische; Treasurer, Connie Broshow.

EIKOSI KORAI

"Never say No" is the EK motto. With the coffee and doughnuts, the cake walks, high school day, the week of initiation everyone had great fun, including the faculty and boys.

President, Mary Jane Reische; Vice President, Donna Harm-
sen; Secretary, Chloe Couch; Treasurer, Mary Jo Wylder.

DELTA PSI OMEGA

From left to right: G. Gossett, B. L. Kelly, M. Moore, B. Roche, H. Ayling, B. Magraw, W. Shaw, H. George, J. Kongabel, P. Christodoulides.

The Delta Psi Omega is made up of some of the more active participants of the Lincoln College Community Players. The Lincoln College Community Players has presented to us during this season four very successful plays; such as "Born Yesterday" by Garson Kanin, "The Glass Menagerie" by Tennessee Williams, the Walter Bullock and Daniel Archer style of "Mr. Barry's Etchings" and for the final presentation we witnessed the "Twelfth Night" by William Shakespeare.

President, Max Scott; Vice President, Bill Magraw; Secretary-Treasurer, Marcia Moore.

HARTS HALL...GIRLS DORMITORY

in memoriam

This year on December 3rd the students and faculty of Lincoln College lost one of their best friends, Dean Richard P. Pooley.

Mr. Pooley had been ill for over a year and had been on leave of absence receiving treatment at Hines Veterans Hospital and Deaconess Hospital.

Space prevents listing except in part the magnificent contributions made to the life of Lincoln College by Dean Pooley during his brief period on this campus. His outstanding characteristic, possibly to those who knew him best was his affirmative Christian philosophy, touching all his activities and relationships with students, his colleagues on the faculty and friends in the community. His official capacity was Librarian and Dean of the college. Under his direction the present general education course was largely developed, the present re-modeled library was devised, and the increased personnel services to the students were brought into being. Ever since his leaving active campus life last December, a great vacancy has been felt on the part of students and faculty alike.

Mrs. Pooley has been continuing the work of the Library for the balance of the year. Next year she will be on leave of absence for graduate study in Library Science at the University of Michigan. She and her son, Sam, will be welcomed back in September, 1952.
